WRS LABS TO HANDLE ALL ORDER PROCESSING, PRODUCT SHIPPING, RETURNS, INVOICING AND COLLECTION OF PLAZA ENT., INC. VIDEO PRODUCTS

New Order Processing Structure Is Designed To Improve Customer Service While Plaza Seeks New Funding Through Ongoing Corporate Merger Talks

(Los Angeles, CA) Effective December 15, 1999, WRS Film & Video Labs, Inc. will handle all customer service and billing matters for Plaza Entertainment, Inc.'s existing sales activities, accounts receivable and future sales of its library of 125 feature films available on video. The new duties of order entry, invoicing, collection and returns processing will supplement WRS's prior activities as the exclusive video duplication provider for Plaza.

Plaza C.E.O. Eric Parkinson said that the move was designed to streamline the order entry and fulfillment procedures, and to improve general customer service. Four of Plaza's Los Angeles office positions will be eliminated in the move.

"As the U.S. video market changes, so must Plaza," said Parkinson. "The competition for retail shelf space requires that suppliers improve customer service, and lower costs. This step is part of our year 2000 strategy to focus our cash and management resources behind theatrical titles, with a reduced effort on secondary and catalog releases."

Customer Service, Orders, Returns or Billing Inquiries should now be sent to:
